

Career Development Seminar

Tracy Costello, PhD
Director, Office of Postdoctoral Affairs

Presents:

“Maximize your Postdoc Experience with an Individual Development Plan”

Having an Individual Development Plan is critical to your progress and success during your postdoctoral fellowship. We will take a hands-on approach creating your IDP or improving what you already have:

- Explore the myIDP.sciencecareers.org platform
- Learn tricks to get the most out of your online IDP
- Identify skills that will maximize your growth in your career
- Learn how to develop SMART goals that will ensure you actually achieve the goal you set
